NADA FOUNDATION

Addressing food insecurity in Afgoi, Somalia

Ibrahim Hassan Hussein
Somalia, PM Track

The problem

Food insecurity

- FAO 2023, report over 70% of population is faced with food insecurity in Afgoi.

Low crop output

- Crop yields decreased by 40% over the past five years due to drought and flooding WFP 2023

Agriculture Water scarcity

Solution

Water harvesting and storage.

Project work plan

Beneficiaries

Local farmers in Afgoi, Somalia

Traction

- Carried a baseline survey
- Engagement with community leaders
- Currently reaching out to possible partners

Project plan 2025

ACTIVITY	JAN	FEB	MAR	APR	MAY	JUN	JULY	AUG	Responsible party
Project kick off meeting									Project manager
Digging ,pipe and canal									Field team
Machines eg. Engine									Technical team
Rain harvesting									Outreach cordinator
Implementation of water management system									M and E
Community awareness									Field team
Monitoring and evaluation									Project manager

Competition Analysis

	NADA Foundation	International NGOs
Accessibility	Yes	no
Sustainability	yes	no
Effective	Yes	no

Project Sustainability

- Community Ownership
- Partnerships with local and international
- investment programs.
- Fundraising events
- Grants and Donations

Budget

Item	Cost Estimate (USD)
Pipe for drip irrigation	$5,000
Digging, dams and canal	$20, 000
Engine for irrigation	$9, 000
Personnel	$5,000
Monitoring and Evaluation	$5,000
Total Estimated Budget	$ 44,000

Stakeholders

Ibrahim Hassan Hussein
CEO of NADA Foundation

Zainab Haji Ahmed
Project Coordinator

Usd 44,000

Partners

Water harvesting and distribution tools,

Thank You

As we face an unprecedented crisis that threatens the livelihoods of millions, our initiatives focus on sustainable solutions that empower communities to adapt and thrive

nadafoundation07@gmail.com
+252615091274